Dear all,

I hope this newsletter finds you in good health and spirits. Each month at Zenplus Private Limited reminds us that progress is not defined by milestones alone, but is built through the everyday efforts, values, and vision that guide us forward. Our progress, whether big or small, is a reflection of the dedication and compassion shared by all to serve with purpose and excellence.

As we approach the final stretch of 2025, it fills me with immense pride and gratitude to witness the unwavering commitment displayed by every member of the Zenplus family. Every project undertaken, every life impacted, and every service delivered stands as a testament to our collective strength and determination.

One of the most exciting developments in recent months has been the impact made by our American Heart Association (AHA) Certified Training Courses in strengthening our mission of emergency preparedness. These programs have empowered healthcare professionals, students, and first responders with globally recognized life-saving skills, ensuring that more individuals are equipped to act swiftly and confidently in times of emergency.

With a focus on reaching more people, Zenzo too has been actively introducing its services across various organizations, helping employees and communities become better equipped to handle emergencies. From launching Mobile Medical Units (MMUs) to conducting First Aid and CPR sessions, Zenzo continues to extend the reach of quality healthcare and life-saving education to workplaces, institutions, and remote areas alike.

Together, our brands, Zenplus Private Limited, Zenzo, and Zenplus Fleet continue to work in unison to drive this mission forward. From delivering timely emergency healthcare services and life-saving training programs to ensuring seamless and efficient mobility support, each brand plays a vital role in strengthening the communities we serve.

As we move forward in our mission, we remain committed to advancing solutions, striving for excellence, and creating more resilient communities across the nation.
